[A block of text consisting of approximately 15 lines of rectangular boxes. The boxes vary in length and are arranged in a roughly staggered, descending pattern from left to right. The first line is the longest, and subsequent lines are shorter, creating a triangular-like shape. The last line contains the number 12.

12

[A block of text consisting of approximately 10 lines of rectangular boxes. The boxes are arranged in a more regular, horizontal pattern. The first line is the longest, and the boxes become progressively shorter towards the right side of each line. The last line contains the number 13.

13

14

15

[A block of text consisting of approximately 10 lines of rectangular boxes. The boxes are arranged in a pattern that is roughly horizontal but with some vertical alignment between lines. The boxes vary in length, with some being significantly longer than others. The last line contains the number 16.

16

17

18
